

Martin Camaj-Gesellschaft, Südosteuropa-Gesellschaft and Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin invite:

Dystopias of Albanianness. Science-Fiction from Kosovo in the 2020s

Artrit Bytyçi (storylab, Prishtina)

in discussion with
Dr. Belfjore Qose (University Tirana) and
Prof. Christian Voss (HU Berlin)

2047. Albania has turned into a dictatorship and sends a killing robot to Prishtinopolis to eliminate liberal journalists and hackers. Like in "The Arbiter. A serialized ethno-cyber-punk novel" (2021), Artrit Bytyçi in his new comic book "Arnautistan Noir" conceives Albanian identities through alternative realities: How would today's Prizren look like if it still were under Ottoman rule, and what language would people speak?
